Formal complaints.

1. Your LA has forced me to turn cartwheels on occasion to meet with presenting defences to allegations and petitions and other nonsense from the LA through their legal department.

2. They did it yet again on Monday 12th Nov 2012 for a court appearance on Tuesday morning first thing.

They themselves were not prepared sufficiently for the meeting - yet again. The Judge even asked them why they were here (in the court).

3. They have then refused to meet the time, as agreed with the court, to supply their submission by a time sufficient to allow a formal reply.

4. Your LA changed the location of where the CAFCASS people would be at extremely short notice on Monday late. To ensure my daughter could still make a very important meeting, as requested by CAFCASS, I was forced to take her to where CAFCASS would be; which happened to be a court in Liverpool.

Your Debbie Mathews interprets this as maliciously as possible. She puts her requirements ahead of my daughter's well being in seeing CAFCASS.

The LA is yet again showing they are putting children's well being second and breaking the Children Act 1989.

Best regards,
Tom Dobbie
